

Substance Abuse Treatment Resources for the African-American Community

The Center on Alcohol Marketing and Youth: African-American Youth and Alcohol Advertising

<http://camy.org/factsheets/index.php?FactsheetID=11>

National Black Alcoholism and Addiction Council - Programs, education, and training for the prevention and treatment of substance use disorders in the African-American community

<http://www.nbacinc.org/>

Health education, research, advocacy and leadership development institution promoting the empowerment of African-American women as educated health care consumers and working for the improved health of African-American women

<http://www.blackwomenshealth.org>

National Survey on Drug Use and Health - Substance Use Treatment Need Among Adolescents: 2003-2004

<http://oas.samhsa.gov/2k6/youthTXneed/youthTXneed.htm>

SAMHSA's Co-Occurring Center for Excellence

www.coce.samhsa.gov

A website on health-related issues affecting African-Americans

<http://www.blackhealthcare.com>

This free Web site has been designed specifically with the African-American community in mind. The site's aim is to offer health information that can increase quality of life among African-Americans.

www.bepowerful.com

NAACP - an organization that champions social justice and works to ensure that the voices of African-Americans are heard.

www.naACP.org

Census 2000 Special Reports: Facts on the Black or African-American Population

<http://www.census.gov/prod/2005pubs/censr-25.pdf>

NIAAA - Alcohol Use Among Special Populations

<http://pubs.niaaa.nih.gov/publications/arh22-4/toc22-4.htm>

NIDA – Special Populations Office

<http://www.nida.nih.gov/about/organization/spo/spohome.html>

Free 24 Hour Addiction Helpline

http://www.addictionsearch.com/pop\_racial.php

American Psychological Association- Working with African American Clients- DVD

<http://www.apa.org/videos/4310724.html>